ELLIOTT INSTITUTE

In accordance with a vote of the town at the last town meeting to accept from Mr. George B. Elliot the sum of 5,000 dollars, the interest of which should be used for the support of public lectures and entertainments under the name of THE ELLIOT INSTITUTE, there was turned over to Francis R. Parker by Mr. Elliot Nov. 17 a certified check for $2,000 and three one thousand Federal Farm Loan 5 per cent Bonds.

On November 26 the first meeting of the Trustees appointed by Mr. Elliot, namely Rev. A. W. Howes and Francis R. Parker of Fitzwilliam and Walter R. Porter of Keene, met and organized at the Cheshire National Bank, Keene, N. H.

Rev. A. W. Howes was elected President of the Trustees and Francis R. Parker Secretary and Treasurer.

It was voted to buy with the cash in hand two 1,000 dollar 4th Liberty Bonds.

As it is too soon to receive any interest on the securities there are no activities to report and no financial statement to make.

It is hoped in the spring when some interest money will be available, The Elliot Institute will become an accomplished fact.

The investment account is as follows:

SECURITIES HELD BY THE TRUSTEES OF THE ELLIOT INSTITUTE

Three $1,000 Federal Land Bank Bonds,	$3,000 00
Two $1,000 U. S. Fourth Liberty Bonds (cost),	1,966 56
Cash in the Cheshire National Bank,	33 44

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Members of the Fitzwilliam School Board:

I herewith submit to you my fourth annual report as Superintendent of Schools, the twenty-second of the series under district supervision.

A year ago at the opening of the school year we were able to retain one-half of our regular teachers, but at the close of school in June we found that only Miss Blodgett and Mrs. Whitcomb, our supervisor of music, were to return. This involved a great deal of time and attention during the summer vacation in an effort to secure suitable teachers for the several vacancies.

During the month of July we secured Mr. Leland E. Tufts for Principal of the Junior High School, and Miss Elizabeth Dudley as Assistant.

Mr. Tufts was especially well equipped to take charge of the work in mathematics and manual training, and Miss Dudley, from her experience in junior high work proved herself well adapted to take charge of the French and domestic arts courses.

The growth of the Junior High school has been encouraging. A good sized seventh grade and a ninth grade three times as large as last year filled every available seat and made it necessary to secure extra desks.

The work in the Junior High school in all classes has been good and the conditions in general were highly commended by the State inspector who spent a day in the school shortly before Thanksgiving.

I believe that the increase in membership in this school of nearly 75 per cent shows that the Junior High school is appreciated by the parents of Fitzwilliam.

Miss Barrett after teaching the Village Intermediate school for two years retired and we secured Miss Flora A. Jean to take the school. Miss Jean has had several years of experience and has taken hold of the work in a pleasing manner, and her pupils are showing steady progress.

Mrs. Firmin declined to teach another year in the Village Primary and we engaged a Miss Jefferson of Haverhill, Mass., to take the school. Miss Jefferson was injured in an automobile accident a few days before school opened and was unable to take the position. Mrs. Firmin kindly substituted for four weeks when we secured a graduate of a Massachusetts normal school for the place. She spent four weeks in the school but did very little teaching, in fact she proved to be a complete failure.

Mrs. Faith Pierce then substituted for two weeks and brought the school back to what a primary school ought to be, and about the middle of November we secured Miss Reardon for the rest of the school year.

Miss Reardon has proved to be a faithful and efficient teacher, and we hope under her teaching to secure a satisfactory year's work in this primary school.

Miss Sturtevant, after three years of faithful service at Fitzwilliam Depot declined to return and accepted a position at East Jaffrey. We secured Miss Louise Norcross of Baldwinsville, Mass., for the Intermediate grades. Miss Norcross has had four years' experience in Massachusetts and has attended two summer sessions of the Fitchburg Normal School.

Her room numbers twenty-three pupils, three less than last year.

Mrs. Pierce, who taught the Depot Primary last year declined to return this year, and for the position Miss Gertrude L. Doyle of Manchester was secured. Miss Doyle has had some experience as a substitute, and attended the summer session at Keene during the 1921 session.

It was hardly to be expected that either of these rooms would show quite the progress made last year under more experienced teachers, but both teachers have been faithful and conscientious in their teaching and I believe the work outlined in the State Program will be covered.

Miss Farrar was unable to complete her work at State Line last May, and a substitute was secured for the last three weeks. Mrs. Haskell, who attended the summer session at Keene, accepted the position.

The school at District No. 10 shows a decrease in registration from last year. Eight pupils received elementary school certificates last June and this year but three pupils entered the first grade. During the fall term 24 pupils were registered. Six out of the eight grades are represented. This school is showing its usual good work.

Despite the large number of changes in the teaching force the Fitzwilliam schools have made a good showing this year. It will be necessary, in order to secure the maximum amount of state aid, to secure a larger number of normal graduates than we have been recently able to secure, and teachers who have not the equivalent of a full normal course should be encouraged to take work at the summer session at Keene Normal School from year to year until this equivalent has been obtained.

In accordance with the vote at the last school meeting a course of study has been drawn up, based largely upon the New Hampshire State Program, with such changes as the local situation seems to require. These programs have been printed and are to be distributed among the parents and other interested citizens.

I wish I might impress upon parents that it is not only their privilege but their duty to visit our schools more than they do. These visits should be made, not merely when there are special exercises but when the regular work is going on.

During the summer vacation a steel ceiling was installed in the primary room at Fitzwilliam Depot, the cellar drain repaired and minor repairs made at the village schools.

So far as finances of the schools are concerned for another year there seems to be little prospect of any considerable change in the matter of expense. Transportation appears to be an increasingly large item with no probability of being materially reduced in the near future. Some school supplies like paper are cheaper than a year ago, books have been slightly reduced in price but not enough to show any considerable decrease. Salaries will probably remain about the same. We cannnot secure suitable teachers for less than we are now paying and we ought not to have to pay more. Trained teachers are still very scarce. We hope that as changes come from year to year there will be more chance for selection than has frequently been the case in the past two or three years.

Thanking you, members of the school board, for your hearty co-operation, and parents and citizens for their support, I pledge myself to continue to give my best service to your schools.

Faithfully yours,

LEWIS S. RECORD,

Superintendent of Schools.

East Jaffrey, N. H., January 31, 1922.
